

The manual of HAJJ & UMRAH Pilgrimage & Umrah

Commendation by
H. H. Sh. Salih Aal Ash-Shaikh
Minister of Islamic Affairs, K.S.A

The Manual of
Hajj & Umrah
Rulings & fatawa

Books published by the author

- 1- The Mini Library of Islam
- 2- Commentary on al-Aqeedah al-Wasitiyah
By al-Harras, Ibn Uthaimen & al-Fozan
- 3- Abridgment of the Prophet's Biography by Ibn Hisham
- 4- Life & Beliefs of Muhammad b.
Abdulwahhab
- 5- Exposition of the Articles of Faith
- 6- Rulings on Fasting
- 7- The Other Side of Sufism
- 8- Searching for the Truth
- 9- Muslim Woman's Guide
- 10- The Islamic Methodology of Aqeedah &
Fiqh
- 11- The Book of Tawheed By Dr. S. Al-Fozan
- 12- The Message of Islam
- 13- The Loftiness of Allah
& other publications.

The Manual of
Hajj & Umrah
Rulings & fatawa

Compiled by Mahmoud R. Murad

© Cooperative office for call & Guidance At the new industrial Area ,2002
King Fahd National Library Cataloging-in-Publication Data

Murad, Mahmood Ridha

The manual of Haji and Umrah. -Riyadh

181 p.; 12 cm.

ISBN 9960-9384-6-8

1- Al-Hajj 2-Al-Umrah I- Title

252.5 dc

3029/23

Legal Deposit no. 3029/23
ISBN 9960-9384-6-8

Revised Edition
Third Edition, 1427/2006
Copyright Mahmoud R. Murad
All rights reserved
1422 / 2001

Foreword by
His Highness, Shaikh Salih bin
Abdil-Aziz bin Muhammad
Aal ash-Shaikh

The Minister of Islamic Affairs, Endowments, Da'wah & Guidance

All praise is due to Allah, the Rubb of the worlds, and May He exalt the mention of our Prophet, and render him, his household and Companions free from every derogatory thing.

Allah, Subhanah,¹ the Exalted, has brought this great universe into existence according to a precise system, and has connected this universal system with man's actions, good or otherwise; so that any form of corruption man does, it defects the universe proportionally.

¹ Subhanah, means Allah is free from every imperfection and derogatory thing.

The perfection of the universe depends on attaining the pleasure of Allah, Subhanah. While His slaves direly needed to know what He loves and approves of to do, and what He abhors to avoid; He therefore, sent them Messengers and supported them with the Divine revelation to give good news to those who obey them, and warn those who disobey them.

Since Divine Message has discontinued by the mission of our Prophet, Muhammad, may Allah exalt his mention, people's need for someone to clarify to them their Deen, and teach them its rituals is now direr than ever . Due to His mercy, Allah, Subhanah, provides them in every age and place a Muslim, who assumes this great responsibility in accordance with the methodology of the Pious Predecessors, and according to people's conditions and languages, and according to the need of those Muslims who live in Western countries for elucidating the sciences of Shari'ah and its injunctions in their own language a clear and simple style, which helps them strengthen their ties with Allah, Subhanah, and clarify what may confuse them.

Hence, brother, Shaikh Mahmoud bin Ridha Murad has compiled the Mini Library containing the most significant issues in the topics of Aqeedah, Jurisprudence, Shari'ah and Transactions; an appreciated endeavor for which we ask Allah to render it beneficial to its compiler and reader, and use us all in the sphere of His obedience. He certainly is most attentive and receptive. All praise is due to Allah, the Rubb of the worlds.

Preface to Third Edition

More than three years have passed since 'The Mini Library' was first published. It is since has been revised and edited so that there would be no need for further editing or revising, to concentrate on the Mini Library II which will include different Islamic topics that are beneficial to readers in sha-Allah.

A number of people have graciously revised the 3rd edition of the Muslim's Mini Library, after the 2nd edition ran out of print, corrected its typographical errors, and edited every book in it bearing in mind that regardless how hard man keeps improving his work, it remains a human's work, i.e., vulnerable and imperfect in comparison with the Book of Allah.

One of the main changes I have made in the Manual of Arkaan is the issue of Istiwa' of Allah above His Throne. I have changed the verb 'to mount' into the verb 'to ascend' and explained that ascending the Throne means that Allah is above it without touching it; thus, to allow no chance of misinterpreting this Divine action. May Allah reward those brothers who drew my attention to this valid point.

You may notice the change the title of this work; it is now "The Muslim's Mini Library" because it contains the basic information a Muslim, new or otherwise, needs to know.

It is a privilege to express my gratefulness to those who were gracious enough to review the Mini Library and those who have made valuable observations on its contents, structure and style. May Allah grant them the best of rewards.

I also ask Allah to reward me for this work, and help me accomplish the Muslim's Mini Library II, which will include works that will be of great benefit to the students of knowledge in sha Allah.

All praise is due to Allah, the Rubb of the Worlds.

M. Murad
1426/2005

Contents

- Introduction... 1
- Excellence of Hajj... 7
- Incitement... 10
- Admonishing... 24
- Lawful things to do... 41
- The Prophet's Pilgrimage... 43
- Arkan* of Hajj... 54
- The Wajibat of Hajj... 55
- Things to do before Ihram... 57
- Conditional Ihram... 59
- Types of Hajj... 60
- Requirements of Ihram... 65
- Prohibited things... 66

Al-Mawaqeeet...	69
The Sunan of the Tawaf ...	74
Hajj for children...	80
Hajj for women...	82
Hajj on behalf of others...	84
Notice...	85
Details of Hajj & Umrah in the Qur'an ...	87
Procedure of Umrah ...	92
Hajj Day by Day...	99
Innovated Practices...	120
Visiting Madinah ...	122
Selected Fatawa ...	125

Introduction

All praise is due to Allah Whom we praise, and Whose aid we implore. We seek His forgiveness and guidance, and we take refuge with Him against our own evil and sinful acts. He, whom Allah guides aright, none can lead astray; and whom He leads astray, none can guide aright.

I testify that there is no true god except Allah alone Who has no partner, and I testify that Muhammad is the slave of Allah and His Messenger. May Allah reward him the best of rewards as a satisfaction for his Ummah (nation) and exalt his mention and render him safe from every derogatory thing, and may He reward his Companions for their endurance and sincerity in transmitting the Deen to their subsequent generations.

Hajj is not just a pillar of Islam; it is more than that. If we consider what it involves, we realize its great significance notwithstanding the fact that it is enjoined once in a lifetime. When one performs it committing no sin in it Jannah will be his reward. Nevertheless, in order to get its great reward one must learn the rituals of Hajj before observing them.

Therefore, I have forwarded this book with invaluable advice offered by the Scholar, the erudite, the Imam of the Hadeeth, Shaikh Muhammad Nasirud-Deen al-Albani, may Allah grant him mercy and admit him into the Gardens of endless bliss, in his book, Hajjatun-Nabi "The Prophet's Pilgrimage." I expect the reader to take them seriously to perform Hajj that may never have another chance to perform again.

I have based this book on the above mentioned-work because Imam al-Albani taught us to follow the proof from the Qur'an and the Sunnah instead of men's opinions regardless how scholarly they are.

A Muslim must bear in mind that Allah, the Exalted, commands us in His Book to follow His Messenger, may Allah exalt his mention, and He threatens to punish severely those who refuse to do so saying: "Whatever the Messenger gives you; follow it, and whatever he forbids you; refrain from it, and fear Allah. Surely, Allah is severe in retribution."¹

The reader will notice a new method in compiling works that deal with acts of worship. I have supplemented this book with a collection of selected Fatawa that were issued by renowned scholars of Ahlu-s-Sunnah wal-Jama'ah for the benefit of those pilgrims who may have violated *Ihram*¹ or other prerequisites of Hajj.

¹ Q. 59:7

Keep in mind the promise that Allah has made by the tongue of His Messenger, may Allah exalt his mention: "He who performs Hajj without committing sexual offense² or sinful behavior, will

¹ Ihram is the practical intention of the Hajj or Umrah.

² Sexual offense in this context means suggestive talk with women, which is return home sin-free like the day he was born.”¹

I ask Allah to guide us to the right course to allow us to drink from the Hawdh (Pool) of His Messenger, may Allah exalt his mention. Aameen.

M. R. Murad

1425/2004

gdaim@yahoo.com

conducive to sexual intercourse, or the like.

¹ Bukhari & Muslim

Excellence of Hajj

Hajj is the visitation to the Inviolable House in Makkah and other sacred sites for performing certain rites during the months of Shawwal, Dthul-Qa'dah and the first ten days of Dthul-Hijjah. It was prescribed in the ninth year after the Hijrah. It is a duty to be performed once in a lifetime by every adult, sane, Muslim who can afford it. Allah says:

Surely the first House of Allah¹ designated for mankind is that in Makkah. It is blessed and a guidance for the worlds. In it are clear signs, and the station of Ibraheem. He, who enters it, enjoys safety. And pilgrimage to this House is a duty men who can afford it owe Allah. He who denies it, then let it be known that Allah needs none of His creatures.¹

¹ Inviolable Masjid in Makkah.

Abu Hurairah reported: "The Messenger of Allah, may Allah exalt his mention, was asked: 'What is the best of deeds?' He said, 'Believing in the Oneness of Allah, and in His Messenger.' He was further asked, 'What is next?' He said: 'Fighting in the cause of Allah.’ ‘What is next?’ he was asked, ‘A flawless Hajj.’ He answered.”¹

¹ Q.3:97

The Messenger of Allah, may Allah exalt his mention, said: “He who performs Hajj without violating it with sexual activity or sins would return home sin-free like the day he was born.”²

¹ Bukhari, Muslim & others.

² Ibid.

Incitement

Hajj is obligatory on every adult Muslim who can afford it, and the Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, encouraged his Ummah to perform it. He was asked, 'What is the best of deeds?' He, may Allah exalt his mention, said, 'Believing in Allah and His Messenger.' They further asked, 'Then what?' He said, 'Jihad (Fighting) for the advancement of the cause of Allah.' 'What else?' he was asked. He said, 'A sin-free Hajj.'¹

¹ Bukhari & Muslim

He also said: "He who, performs Hajj committing no Rafath,¹ nor indecency, would be cleansed from his sins as the day he was born."²

He said: "There is no reward for a sin-free Hajj other than Jannah."³

Ibn Shimasah said: "We visited Amr b. al-Aas when he was dying. He wept for long, then said, 'When Allah placed Islam in my heart, I came to the Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, and said, 'Messenger of Allah! Give me your hand (to shake) to give you my pledge of loyalty.' When he did, I withheld my hand. He said, 'What is wrong Amr?' I said, 'I want to place a condition.' He said, 'Condition for what?' I said, 'To be forgiven.' He said, 'Do you not know, O Amr that Islam eliminates what is before it, and immigration eliminates what is before it, and Hajj eliminates what is before it?'¹

¹ Rafath, is suggestive talk about or with women which is conducive to sexual activities.

² Ibid.

³ Malik, Bukhari, Muslim & others.

A'ishah, may Allah be pleased with her, said to the Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention: "We see that Jihad is the best of deeds. Shall we participate in it?" He said, 'The best of Jihad is a sin-free Hajj.'"¹

¹ Ibn Khuzaimah

Ibn Umar said: "I was sitting with the Messenger of Allah, may Allah exalt his mention, when a man from the Ansar and another from Thaqeef came in, greeted him and said, 'Messenger of Allah! We came to ask you a question.' He said, 'If you wish, I will tell what you came to ask me about, and if you wish I will keep silent and you ask.' They said you tell us, O Messenger of Allah.' He said,

¹ Bukhari & others

‘You came to ask me about the reward you expect for going to the Inviolable House, performing two rak’aat of the Tawaf, the Sa’ee between the Safa & the Marwah, staying in Arafah, casting the stones, offering a sacrificial animal, and the Tawaf of Ifadhah.’ The man said, ‘By the One Who has sent you with the truth, I came to ask you about these things.’ He said, ‘When you leave home heading for the Inviolable House, every time your she-camel raises its hoof and puts it down Allah removes a sin of yours, and gives you a reward instead. As for the two rak’aat after the Tawaf, they are equal to freeing one of the sons of Isma'eel.' (The son of Ibraheem, may Allah exalt their mention.) As for the Sa'ee between the Safa & Marwah it equals freeing 70 slaves. As for staying in Arafah, you should know that Allah descends to the lowest heaven to show-off His slaves saying to the angels, 'My slaves have come to Me with shaggy hair from every remote area begging for My mercy. Were your sins to be as much as sand grains, or rain drops, or as much as the sea froth, I would forgive them. Go ahead My slaves. You as well as those you intercede for are forgiven.

As for casting the stones, every stone you cast; a major sin of yours is eliminated. As for your sacrificial animal, it will be saved for you with your Rubb. As for shaving your hair, a hasanah (a reward for a good deed) will be added to your record, and a sin of yours will be deleted. And as for your Tawaf around the House (the Ka'bah) you circuit it being sin-free. An angel comes to you and places his hand between your shoulders and says, 'Work for your future, for your past sins are forgiven.'¹

¹ At-Tabarani & al-Bazzar

The merits of Talbiyah

Ibn Abbas said: "A man fell off his camel and died. The Messenger of Allah, may Allah exalt his mention, said, 'Wash him with water and Sidr, and shroud him with his two Ihram towels, but do not cover his head nor perfume him. He will be raised on the Day of Resurrection pronouncing the Talbiyah.'¹ Sahl b. Sa'd reported that the Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, said: "Anyone who pronounces the Talbiyah every stone, tree or home to the end of land on his right and left sides but joins him in the Talbiyah.¹

¹ Bukhari, Muslim & Ibn Khuzaimah

The merits of kissing the Black Stone

Abdullah b. Umar said: "I heard the Messenger of Allah, may Allah exalt his mention, say, 'Grasping the Black Stone and the Yamani Corner eliminates the sins.'"²

Ibn Abbas said the Messenger of Allah, may Allah exalt his mention, said about the Black Stone: "By Allah! Allah shall raise it on the Day of Resurrection having two eyes with which it sees, and a tongue with which it speaks to testify for everyone who grasped it truthfully”.¹

¹ At-Tirmidhee, Ibn Majah and al-Baihaqi

² Ahmad

Ibn Abbas reported that the Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, said: “The Black Stone came down from Jannah; it was whiter than milk, but later on, it turned black because of the sins people committed.”²

¹At-Tirmidhee. ‘Truthfully’, according to Imam al-Albani, means doing so out of obedience to Allah and following the Sunnah of His Messenger, may Allah exalt his mention, not aggrandizing the Stone itself.

² At-Tirmidhee

The merit of shaving off hair

Abu Hurairah, may Allah be pleased with him, said that the Messenger of Allah, may Allah exalt his mention, said: "O Allah! Grant your forgiveness to those who shave off their hair." They said to him, 'And those who shorten their hair.' He said, 'O Allah! Grant your forgiveness to those who shave off their hair.' They said to him, 'And those who shorten their hair.' He said, 'O Allah! Grant your forgiveness to those who shave off their hair.' They said to him, 'And those who shorten their hair.' He said, 'and to those who shorten their hair.'¹

It is already mentioned that the Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, said: "As for shaving your hair, you will receive a hasanah, and a sin of yours will be eliminated."

The merit of Zamzam Water

Ibn Abbas reported that the Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, said: "The best water on earth is Zamzam. It is wholesome food substitute, and a remedy for sickness."²

¹ Bukhari, Muslim & others.

² At-Tabarani

Jabir said that the Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, said: "Zamzam water is a remedy for whatever it is drunk for."¹

The Messenger of Allah, may Allah exalt his mention, said: "Allah, the Exalted, says, 'A slave whom I gave sound health and ample provisions, and does not visit Me for five years is indeed bereft.'²

The Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, said to his wives during his Farewell Pilgrimage: "It is only this Hajj for you, and after

¹ Ad-Daraqutni & al-Hakim

² Ibn Hibban & al-Baihaqi

that you stick to the mats of your homes.”¹

This means that the Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, limited pilgrimage to his wives to one time only. By right, this applies to the rest of the Muslim women.

¹ At-Tabarani

Admonition

Many pilgrims when they enter the state of Ihram for Hajj, they do not realize that they have actually initiated that act of worship, which imposes on them refraining from whatever Allah prohibits for them in particular and for every other Muslim in general. Therefore, they perform Hajj and return home without a change in their conduct prior to Hajj. This is a practical proof on their part that their Hajj was not perfect, if not rejected. Hence, every pilgrim should remember this and exert his utmost effort to avoid violating the prohibitions of Allah. Allah says:

The period of Hajj is known months; therefore, he who determines to perform Hajj during this period then let him avoid Rafath, sinful behavior, and argumentation during Hajj.¹

The Messenger of Allah, may Allah exalt his mention, said:

He, who performs Hajj without committing sexual offense or sinful behavior, will return home sin-free like the day he was born.²

Ibn al-Mundthir, may Allah grant him mercy, said:

¹ Q. 2:196

² Bukhari & Muslim

Nothing nullifies Hajj except sexual intercourse (Rafath).¹ That is why Allah differentiates between Rafath and improper behavior. As for the rest of the prohibitions such as: wearing clothes, or perfumes, although doing so is a sinful behavior but it does not nullify Hajj, according to the renowned Imams.

There are some scholars who say that sinful acts nullify Hajj among whom is Imam Ibn Hazm. One has to bear in mind that committing a sin by a pilgrim is not like committing it by others. It is more serious when a pilgrim commits it, because he will not return home sin free; like the day he was born, according to the above quoted Hadeeth. This in fact is tantamount to losing the reward of his Hajj by forfeiting the forgiveness of Allah.

¹ Manar as-Sabeel, vol.1, p 311.

I feel it is my duty to warn you against certain errors and common mistakes that many people commit. Some people enter the state of Ihram with the intention of performing Hajj without realizing that they should quit such sins due to ignorance, heedlessness, or imitation.

1. Shirk one of the major catastrophes with which some Muslims are plagued. They are ignorant of the nature of Shirk (polytheism) which is the grossest of all sins. It nullifies the good deeds according to the words of Allah: "If you commit Shirk your good deeds would be nullified".¹

Many pilgrims commit Shirk while they are in the Inviolable House of Allah, and in the Masjid of the Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention. They neglect supplicating Allah and seeking His help, instead, they turn to Prophets and pious people seeking their help. They swear by them and supplicate them. Allah, the Glorious, says:

¹ Q. 39:65

And those whom they call on do not own a skin of a date stone. If you call on them they will never hear your supplication. And if they do they will never respond to you. And on the Day of Resurrection they will denounce your Shirk. And no one informs you like the One Who knows everything.¹

I wonder what those people benefit from their Hajj when they insist on observing paganistic rituals, that they do to 'gain favor with Allah.' Was this the pagans' pretext to justify worshipping other than Allah, the Exalted? Allah says:

¹ Q. 35:14

And those who take supporters other than Allah, say, 'We worship them only to bring us closer to Allah'.¹

Dear pilgrim! Before you determine to perform Hajj you should know that Shirk opposes the belief in the Oneness of Allah. He who adheres to the Book of Allah and the Sunnah of His Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, is on the right course, and he who neglects them, deviates from it.

¹ Q. 39:3

2. Shaving off beards. It is one of the most common sins among the Muslims in this age. This is due to Western influence on most of their countries. The Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, clearly forbade copying infidels' behavior and attire saying: "Differ from the polytheists and infidels; trim your mustaches, and you're your beards."¹ In another version, he said: "Differ from the people of the Book."

¹ Bukhari & Muslim

This abominable sin entails a number of violations:

a. Disobeying the Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention.

b. Imitating infidels.

c. Altering the creation of Allah, by obeying shaitan, who promised Allah saying: “and I will surely command them to alter the creation of Allah.”¹

d. Imitating women. The Messenger of Allah, may Allah exalt his mention, cursed those men who do so. Saying: “Allah curses men who imitate women and women who imitate men.’¹

¹ Q. 4:119

Oddly enough, many pilgrims do not shave off their beards because of the restriction of Ihram; but once they terminate their Ihram, they shave them off, instead of shaving off their heads, as recommended by the Messenger of Allah, may Allah exalt his mention.

3. Wearing gold rings. Some men wear gold rings not knowing it is prohibited. Or, they know but they still do it regardless. While others know it is prohibited but say, 'It's only a wedding band.' They do not know that wearing this gold ring constitutes double sin. One, for disobeying the Messenger, may Allah exalt his mention, and the other for imitating Infidels. Muslims did not know wedding bands in the past. It is a custom, which they picked from Christians.

¹ Adaab az-Ziffaf, p. 126

On the other hand, one should learn Hajj rituals according to the Book and Sunnah to perform it properly to be accepted by Allah, the Exalted.

4. Missing staying overnight in Muzdalifah after departing Arafat, and in the night of Eed in Mina, because this is the Sunnah of the Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention. Spending the night in Muzdalifah until morning is a prerequisites of Hajj according to people of knowledge. Never be deceived by some Hajj organizers, whose main concern is to save time and money by saving themselves the trouble of going through the entire Hajj procedure, regardless if it is properly observe or not.

5. Do not allow anyone to cross in front of you while you are praying in al-Masjid al-Haram, or in any other masjid. The Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, said:

“Were one who crosses in front of a praying person to know the consequences of doing so, he would have preferred to wait for forty than to do so. The narrator said, ‘I don’t know whether he meant forty days, months, or years.’”¹

It is impermissible for you to perform Salat without having a Sutrah.² Rather, you should place something in front of you while you are praying. You have to stop

¹ Bukhari & Muslim

² Sutrah is a thing which a person places in front of him, so that no human or animal walks in front of him while he is praying.

anyone who tries to walk in front of you while you are praying. The Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, commanded placing a sutrah for Salat. He said, ‘When you perform Salat, having placed a sutrah to prevent people from crossing in front of you, and someone insists in doing so, try your best to keep him away. If he still insists, then fight him; for he is shaitan.’¹ Salih b. Kaisan said: “I saw Abdullah b. Umar performing Salat in the Ka’bah and he did not allow anyone to cross in front of him.”¹

¹ Ahmad

The general Ahadeeth that prohibit walking in front of a praying person are not restricted to one particular masjid or place. They apply to al-Masjid al-Haram, the Prophet's Masjid in particular and the other mosques in general.

People of knowledge should avail the opportunity of meeting pilgrims in Masjid al-Haram and the Holy sites to teach them the tenets of believing in the Oneness of Allah beside the rites of Hajj and other relevant rulings in accordance to the Book and the Sunnah. There are many people who practice polytheistic rituals without being aware of it.

¹ Ibn Sa'd

6. Wrangling and arguing during Hajj. Wrangling, and arguing during Hajj, is sinful behavior. However, clarifying certain judicial issues for people is not prohibited. Ibn Hazm, may Allah grant him mercy, said: 'Arguing is of two types, one is justified, and one is not. The justified argument is lawful while the involved party is in Ihram or not, Allah says: 'Invite people to the path of your Rubb according to the Sunnah and admonish them in a proper manner. Therefore, he who argues to publicize the truth, and suppress falsehood is the one who invites to the path of his Rubb in a proper manner. While arguing to support falsehood knowingly nullifies Ihram and Hajj because Allah says: “Involve yourselves in no Rafath, or sinful behavior, nor wrangling during Hajj.”

However, a preacher must realize that arguing with an opponent who insists on his opinion is futile, then it is better for him to quit arguing.

Lawful things to do

1. Bathing; because the Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, did that.

2. Scratching head and body.

3. Cupping, even if it requires shaving off the spot where cupping takes place.

4. Smelling perfume, and if one's fingernail cracks he may cut it off. He may also have a tooth extracted.

5. Using umbrellas, and staying indoors and in vehicles. Riding topless vehicles is usually done by fanatic sects. Allah does not permit such extremism. It is authentically reported that the Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, ordered his Companions to pitch a tent for him in Namirah and he stayed in it.

I ask Allah to teach us what benefits us and inspire us to apply it. He is the best to ask.

The Prophet's Pilgrimage

The Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, stayed in Madinah for nine years without performing Hajj.

It was only in the tenth year when he announced that he was going to perform it. Many people came to Madinah, wishing to accompany him in this journey to follow the procedure of his Hajj.

He left on the 25th or the 24th of Dthul-Qa'dah, and took with him his sacrificial animals. He rode his she-camel, al-Qaswa', intending to perform Hajj only. Then he started pronouncing 'Labbaik Allahumma Labbaik' and people followed suit.

Jabir, the narrator of this account said: "We set off intending to perform Hajj alone (Ifrad) not Umrah, because we were not acquainted with Umrah then. When we entered the Inviolable House on the 4th of Dthul-Hijjah (when we entered Makkah) the Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, came to the Masjid and made his she-camel sit down, dismounted, and entered the Masjid. He went right away to the Black Stone, rubbed it with his hand, and then he circuited the Ka'bah in a quick pace. When he reached Maqam Ibraheem, he recited, 'And use Maqam Ibraheem as a praying place.' He raised his voice so that people could hear him.

He kept Maqam Ibraheem between him and the Ka'bah and performed 2-rak'aat. He recited Surat al-Ikhlās in the first and al-Kafiroon in the second. Then he went to Zamzam Well, drank from it, and poured water on his head. Then he went to the corner of the Ka'bah and grasped it with his hand. Then he went to as-Safa and al-Marwah reciting, 'Innas-Safa wal-Marwah.'¹ In another version he said, 'I begin with what Allah began with.’¹ He climbed as-Safa until he could see the House. He faced it and said, ‘La ilaha illa Allah. Allahu Akbar.’ 3 times. Then he said, ‘Lailahah illa Allah wahdahu,’ (There is no true God save Allah alone. He defeated the clans alone.)² Then he supplicated Allah in between. He repeated this three times. Then he went to the Marwah, climbed it, and repeated what he did on as-Safa.

¹ Q. 2:158

¹ This refers to a relevant ayah in which Allah says: “Verily, tripping between As-Safa and al-Marwah are among the rites of Allah.”(2:158)

² ‘The Clans’ refers to the pagan troops who marched to Madinah; an event which is called The Battle of the Trench.

In the last round of Sa'ee, he stood at al-Marwah and said, 'O people! If I knew before hand what I would be facing, I would not have brought along the sacrificial animals and would turn this into Umrah. Therefore, he who has not brought a sacrificial animal let him terminate his Ihram, and consider this as Umrah.¹

When he was asked whether that applied to that year in particular or forever, he said, 'Forever.' Therefore, people shortened their hair except the ¹ He asked to consider their circuiting the Ka'bah and their tripping between as-Safa & al-Marwah as Umrah, not Hajj.

Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, and those who brought their sacrificial animals with them.

On the day of Tarwiyah (the 8th of Dthul-Hijjah) they all entered Ihram with the intention of performing Hajj. They marched on to Mina with the Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, where they performed Dthuhr, Asr, Maghrib, Isha' and Fajr; each in its regular time.

The next day, he went to Arafah, and had a tent pitched for him in Namirah. He stayed in it and remained in Arafah until sunset.

During the day in Arafah he performed Dthuhr and Asr jointly, then he delivered a speech. At sunset and when the twilight disappeared, he moved on to Muzdalifah where he performed Maghrib and Isha jointly, with one Adthan and two Iqamah. He did not perform any prayer after that, but slept until dawn. He performed Fajr, and then rode his she-camel, al-Qaswa, faced the Qiblah, praised Allah, and supplicated Him until daylight became clear.

From there on, he moved onto Mina, where he cast pebbles at al-Jamrat al-Kubra, saying, 'Allahu Akbar' with every pebble he cast.

He said, 'Learn your Hajj rituals from me, because I don't know whether I would perform Hajj after this. Then he went and slaughtered 63 camels with his own hand. He shaved off his head, and let Ali slaughter the rest. He ordered a piece of meat from each camel be cooked from which both the Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, and Ali ate.

He delivered a speech on the Day of Sacrifice.¹ Then he rode al-Qaswa' heading for Makkah where he performed Tawaf al-Ifadhah, and did not perform Sa'ee.

¹ This speech is the Khutbah, which follows Eed's prayer.

Hajj is the fifth pillar of Islam that Allah enjoins once in a lifetime on those who can afford the trip physically and financially. The Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, said: "Islam is based on five pillars: The Testimony of Faith, (There is no true God except Allah) performing Salat, giving Zakat, fasting of Ramadhan, and performing Hajj, by him who can afford it.¹

Preconditions of Hajj

- 1) Islam
- 2) Adulthood

¹ Bukhari & Muslim

- 3) Sanity
- 4) Freedom
- 5) Capability
- 6) The *mahram*¹ (for women.)

Capability refers to physical and financial ability to perform Hajj.

The Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, warned: "It is unlawful for a woman to travel without a mahram."²

Hence, Hajj is not incumbent on a woman who does not have a

¹ Maharim pl. of Mahram is a male escort such as a husband, or one of the woman's male siblings who are not lawful for her to marry.

² Bukhari & Muslim.

Mahram, even if she can afford it financially and physically.

Arkaan of Hajj*¹ (Indispensable Rituals)

- 1- Ihram.
- 2- Staying in Arafah.
- 3- Tawaf al-Ifadhah.
- 4- The Sa'ee.

¹ The difference between Rukn & Wajib; is that missing the former nullifies Hajj altogether; while missing the latter should be expiated by sacrificing one of the designated sacrificial animals.

The Wajibat (Duties) of Hajj

The *Wajibat*¹ are the rituals the missing of which requires offering an animal to be killed in Makkah and be given to the poor people there. The one who offers it should not eat from its meat. If one cannot afford making it, he must observe ten days of fasting instead: three during the Hajj,² and seven after returning home. These Wajibat are:

¹ Wajibat is a plural of Wajib.

² Days during which fasting is to be observed are the 2nd, the 3rd, & the 4th of Dthul-Hijjah.

1- Wearing the Ihram towels with the relevant intention from the Meeqat.

2- Staying in Arafah until sunset.

3- Spending the following night in Muzdalifah.

4- Spending the nights of the days of Eed in Mina.

5- Casting the pebbles.

6- Shaving off, or shortening hair (for men) and clipping the tips of woman's hair.

7- Tawaf al-Wada.'

Things to do before Ihram

Clipping fingernails and toenails, trimming mustaches, plucking or shaving off armpit and pubic hair, performing Wudhu' or better yet having a bath, or a shower. Women in menstruation or postnatal period should have a bath, or a shower.

Wear the Ihram at the Meeqat, and recite the Talbiyah of the intended ritual (once only.) You may also say,

'Subhanallah, alhamdu lillah, La ilaha illallah, and Allahu akbar.'

Do not utter the intention verbally for performing Hajj or Umrah, such as saying: "O Allah! I intend to perform the Hajj or Umrah, so make it easy for me". Your intention was already made in your mind the moment you left home. Expressing intention verbally for any act of worship was not the practice of the Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention. Thus, doing so is bid'ah (an innovated ritual). The Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, said:

Every innovated ritual is bid'ah, and every bid'ah is a means of deviation, and every means of deviation leads to Fire.¹

¹ Muslim.

Conditional Ihram

You may also stipulate the following condition upon Allah, just in case you cannot complete the rites of Hajj or Umrah for one reason or another:

Allahumma mahilli haithu habastani.

O Allah! I terminate my Ihram wherever You withhold me.

Having made this condition, you do not have to offer a sacrificial animal, or return next year to perform Hajj in lieu of your incomplete Hajj unless it is your first Hajj, then you must return to perform it next year.

Types of Hajj

There are three types of Hajj: Tamattu', Qiran, and Ifrad.

1-Tamattu' is performing the Umrah during the months of Hajj. Once a pilgrim completes the Umrah, he may terminate the Ihram only to re-enter it on the 8th of Dthul-Hijjah (the Day of Tarwiyah) with the intention of performing the Hajj.

A pilgrim does not have to go to the Meeqat to re-enter the state of Ihram for performing the Hajj; he can do so in his residence in Makkah, or Mina. This type of Hajj requires a Hadee (a sacrificial animal.)

2- Qiran is performing Hajj and Umrah jointly without interruption until one casts the pebbles on the day of Eed, and shaves off his head. This type requires Hadee as well.

3- Ifrad, is performing Hajj only.

You may choose whichever type of Hajj you wish. Yet the best type is Tamattu'.

The Talbiyah

The Talbiyah of Umrah:

Labbaikal'lahumma bi Umrah

O Allah! Here I am responding to You to perform Umrah.

The Talbiyah of Hajj only:

Labbaikal'llahumma bi Hajj

O Allah! Here I am responding to You to perform Hajj.

The Talbiyah of Hajj Qiran:

Labbaikal'lahumma bi Umratin wa Hajj.

O Allah! Here I am responding to You to perform Umrah and Hajj.

The Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, added the following to the Talbiyah for Hajj:¹

Allahumma hadthihi hijjatun la riya'a fiha wala sum'ah.

O Allah! This Hajj of mine is free from hypocrisy, or boasting.

And in case of the Umrah:

¹ This is an Authentic report by adh-Dhiyaa'.

Allahumma hadthihi Umratum la riya'a fiha wala sum'ah.

O Allah! This Umrah of mine is free from hypocrisy, or boasting.

The above are to be recited once upon wearing the Ihram, whereas, the following Talbiyah must be recited repeatedly until a pilgrim reaches certain points and times that will be explained later on:

*Labbaik'llahumma labbaik, labbaikala shareeka laka labbaik.
Innal hamda wan-ni'mata laka wal
mulk, la shareekalak.*

O, Allah! Here I am responding to You. O, Allah! Here I am responding to You. You have no partner with You. Here am I. Surely, all praise and graces are Yours, and so is the dominion!

You have no partner with You.

The Messenger of Allah, may Allah exalt his mention, recited this Talbiyah loudly and repeatedly until he cast Jamrat al-Aqabah.¹

¹ See the Procedure of the Hajj.

Requirements of Ihram

Wearing the Ihram in the Meeqat.

Men should wear no sewn clothes, underwear, head covers (hats or the like) socks, gloves, or footwear that cover the heels.

As for women, they should not wear gloves, Burqu',¹ or Niqab.² But there is no harm in covering their faces in presence of men.

¹ Burqu', a piece of leather or cloth with which a woman veils her face having in it two holes for the eyes.

² Niqab: a woman's face-veil, which covers the soft or pliable part of the nose that extends as high as the circuit of the eye.

Prohibited Things

1- Trimming or plucking or shaving any part of the body.

2- Clipping fingernails or toenails.

3- Covering the face (by women) when no male strangers are around.

4-Wearing perfume.¹

5-Consummating Marriage.

6-Having sexual intercourse: If this takes place during the first Ihram then Hajj or Umrah would be nullified, and the pilgrim must offer a sacrificial animal and complete the rituals, but must return next year to perform the annulled Hajj or the Umrah. If such violation takes place during the second Ihram, then Hajj would not be nullified, a sacrificial animal, however, must be offered.

¹ This also means avoiding the use of scented or perfumed cleaning stuff.

7- The mubasharah,¹ or doing a thing which may lead to it such as kissing or fondling.

Umar bin al-Khattab, Ali and Abu Hurairah were asked about a man who had an intercourse with his wife. They said that he should continue his Hajj, offer a sacrificial animal, and return the following year to perform Hajj.¹

¹ Touching a woman skin to skin.

Whatever applies to men from the above prohibitions applies to women, except for wearing sewn clothes.²

¹ Imam Malik, al-Muwatta'.

²A woman may wear any clothes that conform to the Islamic dress codes.

Al-Mawaqeeet ¹

Al-Mawaqeeet are of two kinds:

a- The Mawaqeeet in terms of time: The months of the Hajj season: Shawwal, Dthul-Qa'dah and the first ten days of Dthul-Hijjah.

b- The mawaqeeet in terms of places:

1-Dthul-Hulaifah, is the Meeqat of Madinah's residents and those who cross it. It is 435 km. from Makkah; and it is the furthest

¹ The Mawaqeeet (pl. of Meeqat) are territorial points at which pilgrims on their way to perform the Hajj or the Umrah must wear the Ihram and make up their mind the ritual they intend to perform.

Meeqat from it. It is also known as Abyar Ali.

2- Al-Juhfah, is the Meeqat of the Syrians and the Egyptians and those who cross it. It is a village located near Rabigh, which is 180 km. from Makkah. Nowadays people enter the Ihram from Rabigh.

3- Yalamlam, is the Meeqat of the Yemenis, the countries aligned with it, and for those who cross it. Yalamlam is a valley, which is 92 km from Makkah.

4- Qarn al-Manazil, is the Meeqat of the people of Najd, Ta'if, and those who cross it. It is also known as As-Sayl al-Kabeer, which is 75 km. from Makkah.

5- Dthat Irq, the Meeqat of the people of Iraq, Khurasan, middle and north of Najd, the towns aligned with them, as well as for those who cross it. This Meeqat is a valley, which is approximately 100 km. from Makkah.

As for those who live within the radius of the Mawaqeet, they may assume the Ihram from the place in which they live.

A Makkan intending to perform Hajj may put on his Ihram in Makkah itself. But if he intends to perform Umrah, he may do so from any place outside the boundaries of the Haram, such as Masjid A'ishah in Tan'eem, or Ju'urranah.

It is not permissible for anyone intending to perform Hajj or Umrah to cross the Meeqat without putting on Ihram. He who does so must return to the Meeqat to put on Ihram, or to do so from wherever he happens to be provided he sacrifices a sheep as expiation. If he puts on Ihram before arriving at the Meeqat, though it is not praiseworthy to do so, his Hajj or Umrah would be valid regardless.

The Tawaf (circumambulating the Ka'bah) seven times.

The types of Tawaf:

1- Tawaf al-Qudoom (Arrival).

2- Tawaf al-Ifadhah, which is a rukn of Hajj the missing of which nullifies Hajj.

3- Tawaf al-Wada' (Farewell) which is the last rite a pilgrim should do before departing Makkah. Missing it entails expiating by sacrificing an animal.

4- Optional Tawaf.

The Sunan of the *Tawaf*¹

a- Kissing, touching, or just pointing at the Black Stone with one's finger upon commencing the Tawaf.

b- Al-Idhtiba' throughout the Tawaf, that is, wrapping the upper part of the body with a towel of Ihram, exposing the right arm and shoulder. Once Tawaf is over, one should cover both shoulders and arms.

c- The Ramal, which is taking quick pace during the first three rounds of Tawaf.

¹ 'Sunan' are those rituals the observance of which is rewardable, and missing them is non-punishable.

d- Grasping, not kissing the rukn al-Yamani by hand every round, if possible, otherwise, neither point at nor force your way to it.

e- The recitation of the following ayah between the rukn al-Yamani and the Black Stone:

“*Rubbana aatina fiddunya
hasanah wafil aakhirati hasanah
wa qina adthabannar.*”

O, our Rubb! Grant us hasanah in this world, and hasanah in the Hereafter, and protect us from the torment of Fire.¹

¹ Q. 2:201

f- Standing between the Black Stone and the door of the Ka'bah while sticking one's chest to the wall of the Ka'bah and supplicating Allah earnestly.¹ The Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, did so.²

g- After completing seven rounds, one should proceed to Maqam Ibraheem, if possible, to perform 2-rak'aat. He should recite in the first rak'ah; al-Fatihah followed by 'al-Kafiroon, and in the second, al-Fatihah followed by al-Ikhlās.

¹ This is almost impossible to do during Hajj season.

² As-Saheehah, #2138

h- Drinking from Zamzam water after performing 2-rak'aat, and then returning to the Black Stone, if possible before proceeding to the Mas'a.

While in Tawaf, one should behave as though he is performing Salat; that is, he should busy himself with the dthikr, supplication & Qur'anic recitation.

There are no particular supplications for each round. One may ask Allah for good things in this and in the world to come. One should also avoid harming people by pushing, forcing his way through, or uttering offensive language. This behavior should be observed throughout the Hajj season.

3- The Sa'ee:

It is the tripping between as-Safa and al-Marwah. Recite the following ayah on your way to the Safa to start the Sa'ee:

Surely, as-Safa & al-Marwah are among the rites of Allah. It is therefore, no sin on him who performs pilgrimage to trip between them.¹

Tripping between these two Hills seven times, beginning from as-Safa, and ending at al-Marwah; stopping at each Hill supplicating Allah while facing the Ka'bah.

¹ Q. 2:158

4- Staying on Arafah

The Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, said: "Hajj is Arafah".¹ This means spending time on Arafah, regardless how short it is,² with the intention of doing so as a ritual of Hajj, from the afternoon of the ninth of Dthul-Hijjah until dawn.

¹ At-Tirmidthee, Abu Dawood & others

² It should be remembered that this does not mean that one can spend a short period of time on Arafah. It means those who could not make it on time, and arrive at Arafah after sunset or after midnight, it does not make difference then how short a period of time they spend on Arafah.

Hajj* for children

Parents with children should intend to perform Hajj on behalf them. Such Hajj would be valid according to the following tradition:

A woman held up her child, and asked the Messenger of Allah, may Allah exalt his mention, "Is performing Hajj on behalf of this child valid?" He replied: "Yes, and you will be rewarded for him too."¹

Such Hajj is considered as supererogatory for the child. Once he reaches the age of puberty, he must perform the obligatory Hajj.

¹ Imam Ahmad, Muslim & others.

If such a child is too young, his guardian may recite the Talbiyah, and cast the stones on his behalf; otherwise, he should do these rites himself.

Hajj* for women

Hajj is obligatory on women as it is on men, provided each woman is accompanied with her Mahram. The Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, said:

Let no man meet a woman privately without her Mahram.¹

Although her Hajj would be valid, yet a woman would commit a sin if she goes for Hajj without a Mahram. It is illegal for her to travel with the company of other women going for Hajj, or anywhere else; for a woman, or a group of women do not substitute a Mahram.

¹ Bukhari & Muslim.

It is recommended for a woman to have her husband's permission to perform the obligatory Hajj. If he refuses, she may leave without his permission, provided she is accompanied with a Mahram. The Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, said: "No obedience is due to a creature if it involves disobeying the Creator."¹

On the other hand, it is not commended for a woman to perform Hajj more than once. The Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, commanded his wives who accompanied him in his Farewell Hajj not to perform optional Hajj saying:

¹ Muslim.

‘It is this Hajj for you, and stick to the mats of your homes thereafter’.¹

Hajj* on behalf of others

He who can afford the trip but is incapacitated by a terminal sickness, or old age, he should get someone (male or female) to perform Hajj on his behalf.

He who intends to perform Hajj on behalf of others should have already performed Hajj for himself.

¹ Fat’h al-Bari

The Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, heard a man saying, 'O Allah! Here I am responding to You to perform Hajj on behalf of Shubrumah.' He asked him: Did you perform the Hajj for yourself? The man said, 'No'! He said to him: 'Perform your Hajj first then (next year) perform it on behalf of Shubrumah'.¹

Notice

If a woman who is performing Tamattu' type of Hajj menstruates before starting the Tawaf and fears missing some of the Hajj rites, she may enter the Ihram with the intention of performing Qiran type of Hajj.

¹ Abu Dawood & Ibn Majah.

A woman in menstrual or postnatal period can perform all the Hajj rituals except for the Tawaf and Salat.

Details of Hajj and Umrah in the Qur'an

Allah, the Exalted, says:

"And, complete the Hajj and Umrah in obedience to Allah. But if you are held back, then offer an available sacrificial, and do not shave off your heads until the sacrificial animal reaches its destination."¹

"If a person is sick, or has a problem which necessitates shaving off his hair, he may do so, provided he expiates by fasting, or giving food in charity, or sacrificing an animal. Once you feel safe, then let those who perform Hajj and Umrah offer any available sacrificial animal. But he, who cannot afford it, let him fast three days during the Hajj and seven when you return home; these are ten complete days. This applies to those who are not residents of Makkah. And fear Allah, and know that Allah is very severe in punishment. Hajj is a set of known months; so he who determines to perform Hajj in these months should remember that no Rafath, nor improper behavior, nor any quarrelling during Hajj. And whatever good you do, Allah knows it. And take provisions; surely, the best of provision is righteousness. And fear Me alone, O you who understand.”

¹ It means, until the sacrificial animal is slaughtered.

“There is no sin on you if you seek the bounty of your Rubb. But when you depart Arafat, remember Allah at al-Mash'ar al-Haram; and remember Him as He has guided you, although, before this, you were of those gone astray.”

“Then advance from where people advance, and seek forgiveness from Allah. Surely, Allah is Most Forgiving, Merciful.”

“And when you conclude your rituals then remember Allah as you remember your fathers, or even more than that. And some people say, 'Our Rubb! Grant us good things in this world;' and such shall have no share in the Hereafter."

"And of them there are some who say: 'O, our Rubb! Grant us good things in this world as well as good things in the world to come, and protect us from the torment of the Fire.'"

"These shall have a share of what they have earned. Verily, Allah is swift at reckoning."

"And remember Allah during numbered days; but those who hasten to leave in two days, there is no sin on them; and those who stay behind, there is no sin on them.

This is for them who fear Allah.
And fear Allah and know that you will be brought together to Him.”¹

¹ Q. 196-203

Procedure of Umrah

These steps are subsequent to entering the state of Ihram from respective Meeqat points.

1- Entering Makkah

Recite the following upon entering Makkah:

Recite the ayaat and supplications in Arabic transliteration

Bismillah wassalatu wassalamu ala Rasoolillah. Allahummaf-tah lee abwaaba rahmatik.

I begin with the name of Allah. May Allah render His Messenger safe from every derogatory thing. O Allah! Open for me the gates of Your mercy.

Once you see the Sacred House say the following:

*Allahumma antas-Salam, wa
minkas-Salam, fahiyyina Rabbana bissalam.*

O Allah! You are the Security Granter, and safety is granted by You. O Allah! Greet us with safety and security.

2-Tawaaf al-Qudoom

Once you enter al-Masjid al-Haram, start with Tawaf al-Qudoom (Arrival's Tawaf.) If it is time for a congregational Salat, pray first, and then perform the Tawaf starting off with kissing, touching the Black Stone if possible otherwise, pointing at it with the forefinger serves the purpose. saying:

Bismillah, Allahu Akbar

Repeat this phrase whenever you reach the Black Stone, or the black strip on the ground, which indicates the starting point of Tawaf. Once you reach al-Rukn al-Yamani, grasp it with your right hand, if possible, without kissing it, and recite the following on your way to the Black Stone,:

*Allahumma Rabbana Aatina
fiddunya hasanatan wa fil'akhirati hasanatan waqina adthaaban-naar*

Our Rubb! Grant us hasanah in this world and hasanah in the Hereafter, and protect us from the torment of the Fire.

3- Once the seventh round of Tawaf is completed, perform two rak'aat behind Maqam Ibraheem, if possible, or anywhere else in the Masjid. Recite al- Fatihah and al- Kafiroon in the first rak'ah, and al- Fatihah and al- Ikhlas in the second.

Let no one to walk in front of you while you are praying.

4- After Salat, drink as much as you can from Zamzam water, and pour some of it on your head.

5- Proceed to as-Safa and on your way to it, recite the following verse:

*Innas-Safa wal-Marwata min sha'a'irillah
faman Hajjal-Baita awi' tamara fla junaha alaihi ayyattawwafa bihima.*

Verily, as-Safa, and al-Marwah are among the rites of Allah, so there is no sin on him who performs the Hajj or the Umrah to walk back and forth between them.¹ Then say:

Abda'u bima bada'Allahu bih.

I start with what Allah started.

When you are on as-Safa, face the Ka'bah, raise your hands and recite the following:

La illaha illallah. Allahu Akbar (3 times)

¹ Q. 2:158. This ayah should be recited at the beginning of the Sa'ee only.

*La illaha illal'lahu wahdahu, la shareeka
lah, lahu'l mulku walhu'l hamdu yuhiyee wa
yumeet wahuwa alla kulli sha'in qadeer.*

*La illaha illal'lahu wahdahu, la shareeka
lah, anjaza wa'dahu, wa nasara abdahu wa hazamal ahzaba wahdah. (3 times)*

There is no true God except Allah. Allah is the Greatest. There is no true God except Allah alone. He fulfilled His promise, supported His slave and defeated the clans all by Himself.

In the meantime, supplicate Allah and beg Him to fulfill your needs, and then walk down the hill. Take a brisk walk between the two green lights. Once you are on al-Marwah, face the Ka'bah and repeat what you recited on as-Safa, then continue tripping back and forth between the two hills repeating the same supplication on each hill, thus to complete seven trips ending them on al-Marwah.¹

After completing seven rounds of the Sa'ee, shorten your hair thus to mark the end of your Umrah. 'Shortening' means cutting short all of your hair, not just clipping little hair from different sides of the head as many people do.²

¹ The distance between Safa and Marwah is considered as one trip, and likewise between Marwah and Safa.

² Clipping few whiskers from different sides of the head does not terminate the

Hajj day by day

8th Dthul-Hijjah

1- if you are performing Tamattu' reassume the Ihram on the Day of Tarwiyah (the 8th of Dthul-Hijjah) in order to begin Hajj rituals following the same procedure you did in the Meeqat.

Those pilgrims staying in Makkah may assume Ihram from their residence, and begin Hajj rituals by saying:

Labbaikal lahumma bi Hajj.

Here I am, O Allah, responding to You to perform Hajj.

Ihram. This means that any violation of Ihram afterwards entails expiating by offering a sacrificial animal.

As for *Qarin*¹ and Mufrid,² they should keep their Ihram throughout the Hajj procedure. In the meantime, continue reciting the following Talbiyah:

Labbaikal'lahumma labbaik, labbaika la shareeka laka labbaik. innal hamda wan-ni'mata laka wal mulk, la shareeka lak.

(Until you cast the pebbles at Jamratul-Aqabah).

You may also place the condition which is mentioned under 'The Conditional Ihram'.

2- Proceed to Mina before noon. Perform the daily prayers, each on time, but shorten Dthuhr, Asr and Isha' to two rak'aat each.

¹ A person performing Qiran Hajj.

² A person performing Ifrad Hajj.

9th of Dthul-Hijjah

3- Once the sun has risen, move on to Arafah reciting the Talbiyah and Takbeer.

4- At the time of Dthuhr perform both Dthuhr and Asr prayers jointly, two rak'aat each. Face the Qiblah, supplicate Allah persistently, humbly, and lowly with your palms facing upward. The Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, said:

The best of words that I and the Prophets before me uttered on Arafah are the following:

La illaha illallah wahdahu la shareeka lahu la hul mulk walahul hamdu wahuwa ala kulli shai'in qadeer.

There is no true God except Allah alone. To Him belongs the Dominion and all the praise is due to Him, and He is capable of doing all things.¹

The term, 'standing' does not mean that you have to remain on your feet all day long. It only means staying in Arafah that day standing, sitting, or lying down, at your convenience, as long as you earnestly busy yourself reading the

¹ At-Tabarani & others.

Qur'an, supplicating, and remembering Allah most of the time until sunset; before which is unlawful to leave Arafah. He who does so commits a sin. He should return to Arafah and remain there until sunset and should expiate by offering a sacrificial animal.

The time spent on Arafah is greatly meritorious. The Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, said: "Allah will be boastful of crowds on Arafah before the heavens' habitants (the angels) saying to them: "Look at My slaves; they have come to Me with dusty clothes and shaggy hair”.¹

5- By sunset, move on to Muzdalifah, perform there Maghrib Salat, 3 rak'aat and follow it with the Isha Salat, - 2 rak'aat, at the time of the Isha Salat, then spend the night there.

It is permissible for weak people and their dependents to move out of Muzdalifah to Mina after midnight, and cast Jamratul-Aqabah upon arrival.

¹ Ahmad & others.

6- Pray Fajr Salat of this day (the 2 Sunnah and the 2 fardh) in Muzdalifah.

7- Face the direction of Qiblah, remember Allah, the Exalted, praise Him, and recite the following:

La illaha illallah wahdahu la shareeka lahu lahul mulk walahul hamdu wahuwa ala kulli shai'in qadeer.

Keep supplicating until very late that morning.

8- Go to Mina before sunrise, and pick seven chick-pea-size pebbles on your way to Mina. It is permissible, however, to pick them from Muzdalifah or Mina.

9- Keep reciting the Talbiyah until you reach Jamrat al-Aqabah - which is next to Makkah- then cast the seven pebbles at it saying: 'Allahu Akbar' with every pebble you cast. Make sure the pebble you cast falls in the basin of the post. If it does not, cast another in its place.¹ It is not permissible to hurl big stones, slippers, shoes, or other objects at the post. You may harm people by doing so, or by forcing your way through.

¹ You do not have to hit the post; as long as your pebble falls in the basin.

10- After casting the pebbles, slaughter your sacrificial animal or have it slaughtered. If you cannot afford the offering, you may fast for three days during the Hajj season, and seven after you return home. It is praiseworthy for you to eat from the meat of your own sacrificial animal, and distribute the rest to needy people.¹

11- Shorten your hair, or better yet shave it off, for the Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, ¹Doing so nowadays is not possible; for the great majority of pilgrims do not kill their own sacrificial animals.

invoked Allah's mercy three times on those who shave-off their hair. As for women, it suffices them to gather the end of their hair, and clip a piece of it.

12- Having completed the above rites, you may terminate your Ihram, that is, all things that were prohibited during the Ihram become lawful again, except for sexual activities, even if you have not had your sacrificial animal slaughtered. This is called the Preliminary Termination of Ihram.

13- Have a shower and proceed to Makkah to perform the Tawaf al-Ifadhah and follow it with 2 rak'aat anywhere in the Masjid. If Tawaf al-Ifadhah is not performed in the same day, such a pilgrim who has terminated his Ihram, and worn his regular clothes, must resume his Ihram until he performs this Tawaf. This is according to the instructions of the Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, who said:

Once you cast the Jamrah in this day,¹ you are permitted to terminate your Ihram except for approaching women. However, if you do not perform Tawaf before sunset, then you should resume

¹ This day is the 1st day of Eed.

your Ihram as you were before casting the Jamrah.¹

Some scholars suggest that this may be difficult for many people to observe; therefore, they suggest that there is no harm in terminating Ihram even if one does not perform Tawaf al-Ifadhah that day.

However, we must always bear in mind that it is the Messenger of Allah, may Allah exalt his mention, whom Allah commands us to follow, no one else. The Messenger of Allah, may Allah exalt his mention, said: "Learn from me your rituals of Hajj." ¹

¹ Abu Dawood

Textual proofs should take precedence over opinions on any issue, according to the judicial maxim: "There is no room for opinion with the available proof (from the Qur'an or the Sunnah)" regardless who issues such opinion. ²

14- If you are performing Hajj Tamattu', you have to perform

¹ Muslim & others.

² After all, Allah says: "It does not behoove a believing man or woman to have a choice when Allah or His Messenger has passed a decision." (33:36)

another seven rounds of Sa'ee. If you perform Qiran or Ifrad but did not perform Sa'ee, following the arrival's Tawaf, then you must perform the Sa'ee. Ihram at that point would be terminated.

11th & 12th of Dthul-Hijjah

15- Return to Mina to spend there the rest of Eed's days and nights, that is, the 11th, 12th and the 13th of Dthul-Hijjah. During this period, perform the daily Salat each on time performing the 4-rak'aat Salat (Dthuhr, Asr, & Isha') two each.

16- Casting the pebbles should take place in the afternoon on these days. On the 11th, cast seven stones at the first Jamrah, (al-Jamratus-Sughra) which is located near Masjid al-Kheef, in the same manner you did before.

17- After casting the stones, step forward keeping the Jamrah on your left side while facing the Qiblah, and supplicate Allah for a long time. Then move on to cast the 2nd Jamrah, (al-Jamratul-Wusta) or the middle post, with another seven stones, then step aside to keep it on your right, and supplicate for a period shorter than the first. Then move on to cast the 3rd Jamrah, (al-Jamratul-Kubra) where no supplication is required.

18- Follow the same procedure which you did on the previous day. If you wish to leave a day earlier, you should leave Mina before sunset that day, but if you prefer to stay behind until the 13th, which is better, you should cast the stones at the three Jamarat as you did before, and then go to Makkah afterwards to perform the Tawaf-al Wada', or the Farewell Tawaf, if you are not a resident of Makkah. Hajj procedure would be concluded by the performance of this Tawaf.

19- It is permissible to delay casting the stones until the 13th provided you cast them in order, that is, to cast the first Jamrah, the middle, then al-Aqabah. It is better for you to cast the stones in the afternoon, but if it is too crowded, you may cast them during the night. The Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, specified the time of starting casting the stone (i.e. after Dthuhr) but did not specify the time of its end.

The Eed Day

It is preferable to perform the rites of the Eed day, the 10th of

Dthul-Hijjah, in the following order:

1- Cast stones at the Jamrat al-Aqabah.

2- Slaughter, or have the sacrificial animal slaughtered for you.

3- Shave-off, or shorten your hair to terminate the Ihram.

4- Tawaf al-Ifadhah.

5- Sa'ee (In case of Tamattu')

This was the procedure which the Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, followed. There is no harm, however, if a pilgrim performs one rite before the other, such as shaving the hair before slaughtering the sacrificial animal, or performing Tawaf before casting stones, or the like.

Reminder

- Deputation for casting the stones is permissible only for weak, not healthy men or women. A deputy should cast his stones first then his principles.

- A pilgrim or a *mutamir*¹ should avoid lying, backbiting, slandering, or wrangling.

- One must choose good company, and make sure his expenses are lawfully earned.

¹ A person performing Umrah.

- It is permissible for the *Muhrim*¹ to have a bath, or a shower, or put on cleaner set of towels. Use only unscented soap and laundry detergents.

- The period of slaughtering animals extends until the sunset of the 13th of Dthul-Hijjah.

- When a pilgrim wants to leave Makkah, he should not do so before performing Tawaf Al-Wada', or the Farewell Tawaf.

A woman in her menstrual or postnatal period does not have to wait until she becomes clean to perform this Tawaf. The Prophet,

¹ A person in a state of Ihram.

may Allah exalt his mention, gave such women permission to leave without performing this Tawaf.¹

¹ Ahmad & Abu Dawood.

Bida'* (Innovated practices during the Hajj season)

1- Traveling of a woman with a group of women, without a mahram.

2- Entering the state of Ihram before reaching the Meeqat.

3- Reciting the Talbiyah collectively and simultaneously.

4- Visiting a number of mosques around Makkah.

5- Visiting Mount Hira' and other mountains in Makkah.

6- Performing more than one Umrah during the Hajj season.

7- Raising hands upon touching or reaching the Black Stone as one does for prayer.

8- Kissing the Yamaani corner, or pointing at it.

9- Washing shrouds and clothes with Zamzam water.

10- Performing nafl Sa'ee .

11- Walking in front of praying people.

Visiting Madinah¹

While in Madinah, it is the Sunnah to visit the Prophet's Masjid, pray in it, and to greet the Messenger, may Allah exalt his mention, at any convenient time. It is also the Sunnah for a Muslim to perform Wudhu" and go to the Masjid Quba' to perform two rak'aat there. Such Salat is equal in reward to that of Umrah.

Bida'* Practiced in Madinah

1- Intending to visit the grave of the Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, rather than his Masjid. Taking a trip just for visiting graves; a Prophet's grave or any other grave is bid'ah.

¹ Visiting Madinah is not a part of Hajj procedure.

2- Visiting the grave of the Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, upon entering his Masjid before performing Salat in it.

3- Facing the grave of the Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, while supplicating. It is appropriate to supplicate while facing the direction of the Qiblah.

4- Addressing the Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, while supplicating him is a grave sin. Doing so constitutes major Shirk (polytheism).

5- Facing his grave after every Salat for greeting.

6- Eating dates in the Rawdhah, the place between the Prophet's grave, and his minbar (pulpit).

7- Spending eight days in Madinah for the purpose of performing forty Salat in the Prophet's Masjid, believing that doing so protects one who does it from Hell-Fire, which is groundless belief.

8- Visiting the mosques in Madinah (excluding Masjid Quba'). To make a point of doing so is bid'ah.

Selected Fatawa

Q. A person performed Umrah during the months of Hajj, let us say, in the month of Dhul-Qa'dah, then he left Makkah to Madinah where he stayed until the time of Hajj. Does he have to perform Hajj Tamattu', or is he free to choose the type of Hajj he likes?

A. He does not have to perform Hajj Tamattu'. However, there is no harm if he performs another Umrah and continue his Hajj as Tamattu' according to the scholars who believe that his Hajj is interrupted by traveling. He still has to kill a sheep. On the other hand, if he wishes he may perform Hajj only, but he still has to kill a sheep because traveling does not interrupt Hajj, according to most correct opinion.

Bin Baz

Q. If one crosses the Meeqat with the intention of performing Hajj & Umrah, but he did not place a condition to terminate his Hajj if he falls sick. Later on he was unable to complete his Hajj due to sickness. What should he do?

A. This person is considered as Muhsar.¹ If he did not place a condition, he should wait patiently for a chance to resume the ritual. If he cannot, he should shave off his head or shorten his hair, terminate his Ihram, and kill a sheep wherever he may be, and distribute the meat to poor people in his location even if he is out side the Makkah. If no poor people are available there, he may carry the meat and give it to poor people in Makkah, or anywhere around his locality. If he cannot afford it, he should fast for 10 days, shave off his head, or shorten his hair and terminate his Ihram.

¹ Muhsar, is a person who is prevented from continuing his Hajj by a disease, fear, or a similar reason.

Bin Baz

Q. A person put on his Ihram in the Meeqat, but forgot to pronounce the Talbiyah for performing Hajj Tamattu'. What should he do?

A. If he intended to perform the Umrah but forgot the Talbiyah, he is considered as though he pronounced the Talbiyah. He should circuit the Ka'bah, perform the Sa'ee, shorten his hair, and then terminate his Ihram. He may pronounce the Talbiyah along the way. There is no harm even if he does not pronounce the Talbiyah, because Talbiyah is only a confirmed Sunnah. He should consider it as Umrah based on his original intention. If his original intention was to perform Hajj and there is enough time, it would be better if he turns his Hajj into Umrah, that is, to perform Umrah, shorten his hair and terminate Ihram. Later on, he can perform Hajj Tamattu' in its due time.

Bin Baz

Q. A person intended to perform Hajj on behalf of his mother, but forgot to recite Talbiyah on her behalf in the Meeqat. What should he do?

A. As long as he intended to perform Hajj on behalf of his mother, there is no harm if he forgot to recite the Talbiyah on her behalf, because the intention overrides the Talbiyah. The Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, said: "Deeds are considered by intention." If one forgets to pronounce the Talbiyah on behalf of his mother, his father, or whoever he is performing Hajj, such Hajj would be accepted on behalf of the person intended for originally.

Bin Baz

Q. Should the intention of Ihram be recited in audible voice? What should one say if he intends to perform Hajj on behalf of someone else?

A. The mind is the place of intention. One should think of performing Hajj (or any other rituals) in mind. To intend performing Hajj or Umrah on behalf of others, it is commended to audibly recite the Talbiyah saying, 'Allahumma labbaika Hajjan an fulan = O Allah! Here I am to perform Hajj or Umrah on behalf of so & so. That is, his father, mother, brother, or anyone else. That is, to confirm what is in his mind, because the Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, did so for of Hajj & Umrah. This indicates the legitimacy of reciting the Talbiyah audibly copying the Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention. So did the Companions as the Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, taught them. They used to recite the Talbiyah loudly. If a person does not recite the Talbiyah audibly being satisfied with intending to perform the ritual on behalf of someone else, there is no harm in doing so even if he continues the Talbiyah without mentioning his or her name: 'Labbaika Allahumma labbaik, etc.' as though he is reciting the Talbiyah for himself. Though it is better to name the person on whose behalf he is performing Hajj or Umrah. It is enough to recite the Talbiyah on behalf of the other person in the beginning of the Hajj or Umrah, saying, 'Labbaika Hajjan or Umratan on behalf of so & so'.

Bin Baz

Q. A person who comes to Makkah for work or for a certain job, and he has the chance to perform Hajj or Umrah. Can he wear the Ihram in his residence, or should he go outside Makkah to wear it?

A. If a person comes to Makkah to visit a relative, or for business purposes not intending to perform Hajj or Umrah, and then later on he changes his mind, he may enter the Ihram in his residence whether inside or outside Makkah. But if he originally intended to perform Umrah, he should go out to Tan'eem. When A'ishah wanted to perform Umrah, the Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, ordered her brother, Abdurrahman to take her out to Tan'eem. This is mandatory for him who wants to perform Umrah. To perform Hajj, one can put on the Ihram from his residence as mentioned above.

Bin Baz

Q. Is it conditional to perform 2 rak'aat for Ihram?

A. It is not conditional to do so. Scholars are at variance regarding this issue. Majority of them are agreed that performing 2-rak'aat is commended just before the Talbiyah. They argue that the Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, put on Ihram after performing Dthuhr prayer for His Farewell Pilgrimage. He said: "Someone (an angel) came to me and said, 'Perform Salat in this blessed valley, and say, 'Umrah within Hajj'." This is an indicative of the legitimacy of performing 2 rak'aat for Ihram.

Other scholars deny the above-mentioned hadeeth as a proof. They say, 'It refers to an obligatory daily Salat, not performing 2 rak'aat for Ihram. Besides, having put on his Ihram after an obligatory prayer does not indicate the incumbency of performing 2 rak'aat for the Ihram. It only indicates that it is better to put on Ihram for Hajj or Umrah after performing an obligatory prayer.’

Bin Baz

Q. What is the ruling on crossing the Meeqat without putting on the Ihram for Hajj or Umrah?

A. He who does so should return to the Meeqat to put on the Ihram there, because the Messenger of Allah, may Allah exalt his mention, commanded: “People of Madinah should initiate Hajj or Umrah from Dthul-

Hulaifah, people of Sham¹ from Juhfah, people of Najd from Qarn, and people of Yemen from Yalamlam. In another version, he said: "These territorial points are for their peoples and those who come their way intending to perform Hajj or Umrah."

It is incumbent on a person who intends to perform Hajj or Umrah to put on Ihram in the Meeqat through which he crosses.

On the other hand, it is preferable during the months of

¹ The Sham Region includes Syria, Jordan, & Palestine.

*Hajj*¹ to perform Umrah first, i.e., to circuit the Ka'bah, perform the Sa'ee, shorten hair, and then terminate Ihram. Then later on he puts the Ihram on for the purpose of Hajj.

However, if he enters the Meeqat outside the Hajj season, like Sha'ban or Ramadhan, he should put the Ihram for Umrah only. If he enters Makkah for visiting relatives or for business, he does not have to put on Ihram according to the correct opinion. It is better if he takes advantage of being in Makkah and intends to perform Umrah.

¹ The months of Hajj are Shawwal, Dthul-Qi'dah, and the first 10 days of Dthul-Hajjah

Bin Baz

Q. A person intends to perform Hajj, but the plane lands in Jeddah before he puts on Ihram. What should he do?

A. If he arrives in Jeddah coming from Sham or Egypt before putting on Ihram, he should go to Rabigh by car to initiate Hajj from there not from Jeddah. If he came from Najd to Jeddah by air before putting Ihram, he should go to Qarn, the Meeqat of the people of Najd to put on the Ihram. If he does not go to the Meeqat and initiates Hajj from Jeddah, he should give an offering, i.e., sacrifice a sheep, or one seventh of a cow or a camel in Makkah, and distribute its meat to poor people there as an expiation.

Bin Baz

Q. A person does not perform Salat, and yet he performed Hajj. Is his Hajj valid?

A. He who performs Hajj while he does not perform Salat denying it to be a pillar of Islam, then he is an infidel, and his Hajj is not valid. If he does not pray being lazy and negligent, scholars are at variance regarding the validity of his Hajj. Some believe it is valid and others do not. The preponderant opinion is that his Hajj is not valid;

because the Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, said: "The covenant which is between us and them is the Salat, he who does not perform it commits infidelity." He also said: "Between man and infidelity and polytheism is abandoning the Salat." This applies to both, a person who denies it, and a person who does not perform it out of negligence.

Bin Baz

Q. If a woman has her menstrual or postnatal period after she enters the Ihram, can she perform the Tawaf?

A. Such woman can perform all of the Hajj rites except the Tawaf. Once she becomes clean, she can perform the Tawaf and the Sa'ee. But if her period occurs after the Tawaf and Sa'ee, and before the Farewell Tawaf, she does not have to perform the latter, because such women are exempted from Farewell Tawaf.

Bin Baz

Q. If Iqamah for Salat is called while a person has not finished the Tawaf or Sa'ee. Should he stop or continue?

A. He should join in the Salat, and then perform the remaining rounds of the Tawaf or the Sa'ee.

Bin Baz

Q. Is it incumbent to perform the 2 rak'aat of the Tawaf behind the Maqam? What if a person forgets performing them?

A. It is not mandatory to perform these 2 rak'aat behind the Maqam, rather anywhere should do. Nor is there harm if one forgets to perform them, because they are not prerequisite.

Bin Baz

Q. Can a person delay Tawaf al-Ifadhah until just before departure to perform it with the intention of performing the Farewell Tawaf?

A. There is no harm in doing so, for Tawaf al-Ifadhah at that point is sufficient for Farewell Tawaf as well whether one intends it for both or not. The point is that Tawaf al-Ifadhah alone would be sufficient whether a person intends to perform two in one or not. It is also permissible to perform that Tawaf day or night.

Bin Baz

Q. Is Wudhu' necessary for Tawaf and Sa'ee?

A. Wudhu' is necessary for Tawaf, not Sa'ee; but it is better to perform Sa'ee with Wudhu'.

Bin Baz

Q. Is the Farewell Tawaf necessary for Umrah? Is it permissible to do shopping after Farewell Tawaf?

A. Although it is better to perform Farewell Tawaf for Umrah, but it is not necessary. There is no harm in leaving Makkah without performing it. However, it is a duty to perform it after the Hajj, because the Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, said: "Let none of you depart before he circuits the House.¹" This was an address to pilgrims in general.

On the other hand, one may purchase his needs, even if they are for commercial purposes, provided he does not stay longer than necessary. Otherwise, he should perform another Farewell Tawaf.

¹ The term 'House' refers to the Ka'bah.

Bin Baz

Q. Is it permissible to perform Sa'ee before the Tawaf in Hajj or Umrah?

A. Tawaf according to Sunnah should be performed before Sa'ee, whether in Hajj or Umrah, but there is no harm if some does it the other way round unknowingly. A man told the Prophet that he performed the Sa'ee first, he said, 'No harm'.

Bin Baz

Q. Is it better to shave off or shorten the hair after the Hajj or Umrah? Is it permissible to shorten part of the hair?

A. It is better to shave off the head at the end of Hajj or Umrah; because the Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, asked Allah three times to grant mercy and forgiveness to those who shave off their heads, and only once for those who shorten their hair. It is better during the Hajj season to shorten hair at the end of the Umrah, so that one would be able to shave off the head at the end of Hajj; because Hajj is better than Umrah. However, if there is enough time between Umrah and Hajj for the hair to grow, then it is better to shave off after Umrah, and do the same at the end of Hajj.

On the other hand, it is not sufficient to shorten part of the hair. One should either shave off or shorten all of the hair. Either way one should start with the right side of the head.

Bin Baz

Q. What is the ruling on spending the nights of Tashreeq (11th, 12th, & 13th of Dthul-Hijjah) outside Mina willfully, or due to the lack of space? When should a pilgrim leave Mina?

A. Spending the nights of 11th & 12th in Mina is a duty on both men and women according to the authentic verdict. Those who find no space are exempted, and they do not have to expiate.

A pilgrim may leave Mina after casting the Jamarat on the afternoon of the 12th, but it is better if he stays behind until he casts the Jamarat on the afternoon of the 13th.

Bin Baz

Q. Is it permissible to pick stones from grounds around the Jamrat?

A. It is permissible; because stones in the area of Jamrat are not been used for casting. As for the stones in the basin, it is not permissible to pick and use for casting.

Bin Baz

Q. If someone is doubtful about the right number of stone he casts; what should he do?

A. Such person should complete the number even if he picks the stones from the ground around the Jamrat.

Bin Baz

Q. My mother is sick and old; is it permissible to perform Hajj on her behalf?

A. There is no harm if you do that provided you have already performed Hajj for yourself. If however, she becomes able to perform Hajj in the future, it would be better if she herself performs the Hajj just to be on the safe side. Allah knows best.

Ibn Manee'

Q. Is it permissible to take a loan to perform Hajj?

A. It is permissible, but not necessary to do so. A person who is financially incapable, he is exempted. Hajj is a duty only on a person who can afford it. Therefore, he who does not have enough funds, he does not have to borrow money to perform it; for he is exempted on the grounds of incapability. Allah knows best.

Ibn Manee'

Q. A woman wants to perform Umrah, but she does not have a mahram;¹ can she accompany her sister and her husband to perform Umrah?

A. It is unlawful for a woman who believes in Allah and the Last Day to travel without a mahram. Her brother-in-law is not her Mahram. Therefore; she is not permitted to travel with him even if her sister accompanies her. If she does go with them, then she commits a sin; because by so doing, she disobeys the Messenger of Allah, may Allah exalt his mention, who forbade women to travel without a mahram. Scholars have said that the ability to perform Hajj or Umrah for women means the availability of a Mahram. If a woman does not have a Mahram, then she is exempted from Hajj, even if she can afford it physically and financially. Allah knows best.

¹ A mahram, is a male escort such as a husband, or one of the woman's male siblings who are not lawful for her to marry.

Ibn Manee'

Q. I finished the Umrah but forgot to shorten my hair. I took my Ihram off, and put on my clothes. What should I do?

A. The Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, said: "Allah forgives my Ummah's mistakes, sins committed out of forgetfulness, and things they do under coercion."¹

No expiation is due on you. You should take off your clothes, put the Ihram on, then shave off your head, or shorten your hair soon as you become aware of the ruling. If you remember and yet you do not do that, then you have to kill a sheep for not observing a duty of Hajj, i.e., shaving off your hair or shortening it. Allah knows best.

¹ Ibn Majah

Ibn Manee'

Q. Is it permissible for me to perform Hajj when I am in debt?

A. There is no relation between Hajj and debts; hence, it is permissible for a person in debt to perform Hajj. If the debt is due, then he should pay it off; because procrastination on the part of a wealthy person is wrong. It entails punishing and disgracing. In that case, he should pay off his debt; he may perform Hajj later on, if he can afford it. Otherwise, he is exempted. Allah says: "And Hajj to the House is a duty which men, who can afford it, owe Allah.”¹

On the other hand, if he goes ahead and performs Hajj while being in debt, although, he commits a sin by doing so, but his Hajj would be valid. Allah knows best.

Bin Baz

Q. Some people continue Tawaf while the imam is delivering the Khutbah of Jum'ah prayer, and they supplicate loudly and collectively. Is it permissible to perform Tawaf or Sa'ee at that point?

¹ Q. 3:97

A. Such a person who is a traveler is exempted from performing Jum'ah prayer. It appears to me that he is not aware of the command of keeping silent while the imam delivers the Khutbah if his intention is to perform Dthuhr, not Jum'ah prayer. However, if he intends to perform Jum'ah prayer, or if he is a resident whose duty is to attend this prayer, he must sit and listen to the Khutbah. Once the Jum'ah prayer is over, he can continue the Tawaf. Allah knows best

Ibn Manee'

Q. I performed Hajj Tamattu' but did not perform Sa'ee after Tawaf al-Ifadhah, thinking that Sa'ee for Umrah would satisfy for Sa'ee for Hajj, then I went back to my country. Was what I did right?

A. People of knowledge, may Allah grant them mercy, are at variance whether a *Mutamatti'*¹ should perform Sa'ee twice;² one for Umrah and another for Hajj.

¹ Mutamatti', a person performing Hajj Tamattu', which is performing Umrah and Hajj separately.

² Sa'ee in this context means performing seven trips between the Safa & the Marwah, not a single trip as one may think.

The majority of them believe that one should perform Sa'ee twice, once for Hajj and another for Umrah. That is, the first Sa'ee belongs to the Umrah, which is an independent ritual from the Hajj. While Hajj is another ritual that has its own rites, one of which is the Sa'ee.

However, some scholars believe that one Sa'ee satisfies for both Hajj & Umrah, just like the Mufrid and the Qarin whose Sa'ee after the Arrival Tawaf satisfies for the Sa'ee of Tawaf al-Ifadhah. This opinion is related to Imam Ahmad. Shaikhul-Islam Ibn Taymiyah described this as the preponderant of the Imam's two different opinions. He elaborated on it saying, 'Those who performed Hajj Tamattu' with the Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, did not perform Sa'ee between the Safa & Marwah more than once. Abdullah, son of Imam Ahmad said: "My father was asked, 'How many times should a Mutamatti' perform Sa'ee'. He answered, 'It is better if he performs Tawaf and Sa'ee twice, but there is no harm if he performs it once. However, I prefer performing Sa'ee twice.'

Imam Ahmad said that Ibn Abbas used to say, 'It is enough for the Mutamatti' to perform Tawaf & Sa'ee once.

Although people are agreed that the Companions who performed Hajj Tamattu' with the Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, circuited the Ka'bah and tripped between the Safa & the Marwah upon their arrival. But scholars are at variance as to whether they performed another Sa'ee when they returned from Arafah. Some say they did, and others say they did not. Both, Imam al-Bukhari and Imam Muslim reported that Jabir said: "Neither the Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, nor his Companions performed Sa'ee more than once'. The following hadeeth of the Prophet, may Allah exalt his mention, supports Jabir's report: "Umrah is incorporated with Hajj until the Day of Resurrection".¹ Hence, the moment the Mutamatti' puts on the Ihram for Umrah, he in fact initiates the ritual of Hajj too; but the latter is separated from the former to make it easier for the pilgrim.

Based on what is mentioned above, and since some scholars believe that a single Sa'ee satisfies for both Hajj & Umrah, we hope that there is no harm for the inquirer to perform a single Sa'ee for both Umrah & Hajj. However, we advise him to perform Sa'ee for each in the future, just to be on the safe side.

¹ Muslim

Ibn Manee'

The End

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

حُقوقُ الطَّبَعِ مَحْفُوظَةٌ لِلْمَوْلَانِ

الطَّبَعَةُ الثَّلَاثَةُ

طَبَعَةُ جَدِيدَةٍ مُنْقَحَةٍ

١٤٢٧ هـ - ٢٠٠٦ م

دليل المراد الإسلامي

٧

دليل الحج والعمرة

إعداد

محمد مودين رضا مراد

باللغة الإنجليزية

صدر للمؤلف باللغة الإنجليزية

- ١- مكتبة المسلم المصغرة
- ٢- شرح العقيدة الواسطية
للهراس، ابن عثيمين، الفوزان
- ٣- مختصر السيرة لإبن هشام
- ٤- حياة وعقيدة الإمام محمد بن عبد
الوهاب
- ٥- شرح أركان الإيمان
- ٦- أحكام الصيام
- ٧- الوجه الآخر للصوفية
- ٨- البحث عن الحقيقة
- ٩- دليل المرأة المسلمة
- ١٠- منهج المسلم في العقيدة والفقه
- ١١- كتاب التوحيد للدكتور
الفوزان
- ١٢- الإسلام باختصار
- ١٣- أدلة العلو من الكتاب والسنة
وكتب اخرى

ذِي الْحِجَّةِ وَالْعُمْرَةِ

علم المعرفة

تلك الأيام

الحج والعبادة

أحكام وفتاوى

تقرير

معالي الشيخ صالح بن عبد العزيز آل الشيخ
وزير الشؤون الإسلامية والأوقاف والدعوة والإرشاد

إعداد